3. What do you think about self-driving cars?

- A. I'm excited - can't wait to be driven everywhere!
- B. Not sure - I'll wait until I'm sure they're definitely safe
- C. You couldn't pay me to get in one!

4. When a new smartphone or device is released how quickly will you get it?

- A. I'll probably already have pre-ordered it
- B. Fairly soon, if I'm interested enough
- C. I'll wait until someone else gives it to me second-hand

5. How worried are you that new technology will do you out of a job?

- A. Not at all - new tech will create jobs, not replace them
- B. A little - who knows what changes technology will bring?
- C. Very - I don't like the thought of robots replacing people in the workplace

MORE A ANSWERS:

Technophile

You love technology. You've always got the latest gadgets and are excited about the changes that technology will bring.

MORE B ANSWERS:

Tech literate

You know a bit about technology but you're definitely no expert - but what you do know is probably enough to get by.

MORE C ANSWERS:

Technophobe

You're no good at technology. You're probably still using the first mobile phone that you bought about 15 years ago and you're definitely not a fan of new technology. Maybe rather than resisting change, you should try to embrace it.

H: If I make a silly mistake, I feel really embarrassed. Get red ... red in the face and everything and ...

J: When I'm watching a horror film, I'm ... I feel terrified.

A: When I'm watching a horror film, I feel scared.

H: When I'm watching a horror movie, I feel very on edge, you know, trying to anticipate what's gonna happen at any moment, but obviously not too sure, so get quite scared.

J: When Barça are winning, I feel excited.

A: When Monterrey is losing 5-0, I'm pretty disappointed.

- ✓ better and longer memory retention,
- ✓ suitable for dyslectic and dysgraphic students,
- ✓ time-off for the teacher.

4. MULTI-SENSORY LEARNING

THE LEARNING CONE (EDGAR DALE 1969)

Simulating Real Experience

Voice of Students or Vox-Pops in the classroom

(say and do = activate your students!)

Instructions:

1. Divide students in groups of three.
2. First task of each group is to create questions based on learnt grammar or vocabulary. To help your students, write words or phrases of the topic on the board. Another option is to prepare different questions for each group.

Simulating Real Experience

3. Monitor the groups and check accuracy of questions. Afterwards, each group is going to change into a film crew: presenter, camera operator and note writer.
4. Activity goes on in a street-like manner: students can move freely in the classroom, communicate together in English, read in English and you can even play a background music.
5. Choose the first film crew. The presenter gives questions to his/her classmates, the camera operator films and the writer takes notes (if necessary, s/he can ask to repeat the answer). Each group goes through the same short film-making procedure.
6. What are your tips for follow-up activity?

5. SUGGESTIONS FOR/OF TEACHERS

- ✓ If you can't beat them, use them.
- ✓ Reduce TTT (teacher talking time) by using technology.
- ✓ Try to incorporate as many multi-sensory activities as possible.
 - ✓ Ask students to help you with technological devices.
 - ✓ Try to involve each student in every activity.
 - ✓ Use online dictionary during the lesson.
 - ✓ Contact IT (online) support.

Enjoy your techie-teaching

N: I had a coffee this morning with some milk and some orange juice. I ate some cornflakes with milk and I ate an apple.

P: I had lots of things. I started with cereal and fruit, I had toast and I finished with coffee and a waffle.

M: It was a really tiring day. We had to get up at four o'clock to leave in Belgium. We took the tunnel to London. After that we were in the bus for ... I think it was two hours, then we arrived at the hostel. We directly went on with the walk. We went into the London Eye, we saw the Big Ben, we saw Trafalgar Square.

C: I met up with a friend and we went to Hampstead Heath and we were strolling
