Dear Martha,

I'm so happy you <sup>0</sup> are coming (come) next Monday. We're all looking forward to seeing you. The weather is fine at the moment and I hope it <sup>1</sup> _____ (not change) next week.

I've planned so many things for us – on Tuesday and Wednesday I <sup>2</sup> _____ (show) you around London. I hope you <sup>3</sup> _____ (like) it as much as I do. At the weekend I <sup>4</sup> _____ (take) you to Oxford – I've already booked the coach tickets and accommodation for us. We <sup>5</sup> _____ (stay) in a nice bed and breakfast hotel. Oxford is my second favourite place in England (after London of course!) and I'm sure you <sup>6</sup> _____ (fall) in love with it instantly!

About the travel arrangements – your plane <sup>7</sup> _____ (land) on Monday at 3.30 p.m., is that right? I won't be able to meet you at the airport since I <sup>8</sup> _____ (work) till 5 p.m. that day. But my brother has offered to pick you up. I know you haven't met him but don't worry. He <sup>9</sup> _____ (carry) a sign with your name so there shouldn't be any problems.

A big hug and see you soon!

Wendy
