

Welcome to face2face Second edition!

face2face Second edition

face2face Second edition is a general English course for adults and young adults who want to learn to communicate quickly and effectively in today's world. Based on the communicative approach, it combines the best in current methodology with innovative new features designed to make learning and teaching easier. Each self-contained double-page lesson is easily teachable off the page with minimal preparation.

The face2face Second edition syllabus integrates the learning of new language with skills development and places equal emphasis on vocabulary and grammar. The course uses a guided discovery approach to learning, first allowing students to check what they know, then helping them to work out the rules for themselves through carefully structured examples and concept questions.

There is a strong focus on listening and speaking throughout face2face Second edition. Innovative Help with Listening sections help students to understand natural spoken English in context and there are numerous opportunities for communicative, personalised speaking practice. The Real World lessons in each unit focus on the functional and situational language students need for day-to-day life.

This language can now be presented using video material on the Teacher's DVD. For more on the face2face approach, see p20.

All new language is included in the interactive Language Summaries in the back of the Student's Book and is regularly recycled and reviewed. Students can also review new language in the Extra Practice section in the Student's Book, on the Self-study DVD-ROM and in the Workbook.

The Student's Book provides approximately 80 hours of core teaching material, which can be extended to 120 hours with the inclusion of the photocopiable materials and extra ideas in this Teacher's Book.

The vocabulary selection in face2face Second edition has been informed by the English Vocabulary Profile (see p15) as well as the Cambridge International Corpus and the Cambridge Learner Corpus.

face2face Second edition is fully compatible with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and gives students regular opportunities to evaluate their progress. The Elementary Student's Book reviews CEFR A1 and takes students to the end of A2 (see p14–p19).

face2face Second edition Elementary Components

Student's Book with Self-study DVD-ROM

The Student's Book provides 49 double-page lessons: a Welcome lesson and 12 thematically linked units, each with four lessons of two pages. Each lesson takes approximately 90 minutes (see p6–p9).

The Self-study DVD-ROM is an invaluable resource for students with over 300 exercises in all language areas and a Review Video for each unit, My Test and My Progress sections where students evaluate their own progress (see p11–p13) and an interactive Phonemic Symbols chart. In addition there is an e-Portfolio with Grammar Reference, Word List, Word Cards, plus a My Work section where students can build a digital portfolio of their work.

You can help students to get the most out of the Self-study DVD-ROM by giving them the photocopiable user instructions on p11–p13.

Class Audio CDs

The three Class Audio CDs contain all the listening material for the Student's Book, including drills, Real World conversations and the listening sections of the Progress Tests for units 6 and 12.

Workbook

The Workbook provides further practice of all language presented in the Student's Book. It also includes a 24-page Reading and Writing Portfolio based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, which can be used either for homework or for extra work in class.

Teacher's Book with Teacher's DVD

This Teacher's Book includes Teaching Tips, Classroom Activities and Games and Teaching Notes for each lesson. There is also an extensive bank of photocopiable materials (see p3): 35 Class Activities, 12 Vocabulary Plus worksheets, 12 Extra Reading worksheets, 5 Study Skills worksheets and 12 Progress Tests.

The Teacher's DVD contains video presentation material for all the Real World lessons in the Student's Book, as well as printable PDFs of all the Teaching Notes and photocopiable materials (see p10). The DVD by default opens the Video menu, where you will find help on how to access the PDFs.

A Guide to the Student's Book

Lessons A and B in each unit introduce and practise new vocabulary and grammar in realistic contexts.

Key vocabulary in listening and reading texts is pre-taught before students listen or read.

Students are often asked to refer to the Audio and Video Scripts in the back of the Student's Book to help develop their ability in both listening and pronunciation.

Quick Reviews at the beginning of each lesson recycle previously learned language and get the class off to a lively, student-centred start.

Controlled practice exercises check students have understood the meaning and form of new language.

The integrated pronunciation syllabus includes drills for all new grammar structures.

REAL WORLD Deciding what to do

4 a Look at these questions and answers. We use them when we're deciding what to do.

asking people what they want to do

What would you like to do?
Where do you want to go?
Would you like (to go to London)?
Do you want (to go to Regent's Park)?

saying what you want to do

I'd like (to go to the beach).
I want (to go to Longleat).
Yes, that's a good idea.
Not really, I'd rather (stay at home).

TIPS • Would like is more polite than want.
• We use I'd rather to say I want to do this more than something else.

b Complete the rules with would/d like, want and would/d rather.

• After _____ we use the infinitive (go, do, etc.).
• After _____ and _____ we use the infinitive with to (to go, to do, etc.).

which place when to go what you can do there where and when to meet how to get there

Where would you like to go? I'd like to go to ...
I'd rather go to ...

c Tell the class about your group's day out.

Add variety to your lessons by presenting Real World language visually using the new video clips on the face2face Second edition Elementary Teacher's DVD.

The integrated pronunciation syllabus includes drills for all new Real World language.

Free-speaking activities at the end of the lesson enable students to practise Real World language communicatively in a personalised context.

Lesson D VOCABULARY AND SKILLS lessons develop students' range of receptive skills by providing opportunities to see and hear new words and phrases in extended reading and listening texts.

Help with Vocabulary sections encourage students to work out the rules of form and use of new vocabulary themselves, before checking in the interactive Language Summary for the unit.

Help with Pronunciation sections help students with specific areas of pronunciation that they often find problematic.

 - Do you live in a city or in the country?
 - Do you like where you live? Why?/Why not?

 - It's cheaper to live in the country than the city.
 - Public transport is better in the city.
 - Life in the city is more interesting.

The Grass Is Always Greener

They say that the grass is always greener on the other side of the fence. But can moving house really solve your problems? We asked two people from different parts of the UK why they decided to change the way they live.

Neil Price

A month ago I got a job as a National Park manager, so we decided to sell our house in the city and move to the country. We want to have an easier life and I'd like to spend more time with my family. I really enjoy spending time with my two children, but I only see them on Sundays at the moment. I work six days a week because you need to have a lot of money to live in the city. Everything's more expensive here, especially if you have children. But the kids aren't very happy about moving. They love living in the city, but my wife and I think the country is safer for them. Of course, teenagers like going out on their own, but it can be quite dangerous around here, especially at night.

Barry Robson

I moved to the city two years ago because I needed to get a job. I stopped looking for work in the country because there weren't any jobs, but when I moved here I found one in the first week. I enjoy living in the city because there are more things to do in your free time – life in the country can be quite boring. Also public transport is a lot better in the city, so I don't need to have a car. But houses are more expensive, so generally the cost of living is about the same. Sometimes I hate living in the city – it's dirty, crowded and noisy at night – and I'd like to go back to the country one day. When I'm old, I'd love to have a little place in the mountains where it's really quiet.

The Common European Framework (CEFR)

What is the Common European Framework (CEFR)?

Since the early 1970s, a series of Council of Europe initiatives has developed a description of the language knowledge and skills that people need to live, work and survive in any European country. *Waystage 1990*¹, *Threshold 1990*² and *Vantage*³ detail the knowledge and skills required at different levels of ability. In 2001, the contents of these documents were further developed into sets of ‘can do’ statements or ‘competences’ and officially launched as the *Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, teaching, assessment (CEFR)*⁴. A related document, The European Language Portfolio, encourages learners to assess their progress by matching their competence against the ‘can do’ statements.

face2face Second edition has been developed to include comprehensive coverage of the requirements of the CEFR. The table above right shows how face2face Second edition relates to the CEFR and the examinations which can be taken at each level through University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations (Cambridge ESOL), which is a member of ALTE (The Association of Language Testers in Europe).

CEFR level:	Cambridge ESOL exams:
	face2face
C1	Advanced	Advanced (CAE)
B2	Upper Intermediate	First FCE
B1 +	Intermediate	Preliminary (PET)
B1	Pre-intermediate
A2	Elementary	Key (KET)
A1	Starter

In the spirit of The European Language Portfolio developed from the CEFR, face2face Second edition provides a Progress Portfolio for each unit in the Student's Book. Students are encouraged to assess their ability to use the language they have learned so far and to review any aspects they are unsure of by using the Self-study DVD-ROM. In the Workbook there is a 24-page Reading and Writing Portfolio section (two pages for each unit) linked to the CEFR and a comprehensive list of ‘can do’ statements in the Reading and Writing Progress Portfolio, which allows students to track their own progress.

face2face Second edition Elementary and CEFR levels A1 and A2

		A1	A2
UNDERSTANDING	Listening	I can recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance, (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear, simple messages and announcements.
	Reading	I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues.	I can read very short, simple texts. I can find specific, predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and timetables and I can understand short simple personal letters.
SPEAKING	Spoken interaction	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.
	Spoken production	I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.	I can use a series of phrases and sentences to describe in simple terms my family and other people, living conditions, my educational background and my present or most recent job.
WRITING	Writing	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.	I can write short, simple notes and messages relating to matters in areas of immediate need. I can write a very simple personal letter, for example, thanking someone for something.

The table above describes the general degree of skill required at levels A1 and A2 of the CEFR. Details of the language knowledge required for A2 are listed in Waystage 1990 and the ‘can do’ statements for both A1 and A2 are listed in The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, teaching, assessment.

The Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing tables on p16–p19 show where the required competencies for levels A1 and A2 are covered in face2face Second edition Elementary. Full details of how this level covers the grammatical, lexical and other areas specified by Waystage 1990 can be found on our website: www.cambridge.org/elt/face2face.

English Vocabulary Profile

What is the English Vocabulary Profile?

The English Vocabulary Profile is part of English Profile, a ground-breaking and innovative programme which is shaping the future of English language learning, teaching and assessment worldwide. Endorsed by the Council of Europe, English Profile provides a unique benchmark for progress in English by clearly describing the language that learners need at each level of the Common European Framework (CEFR).

The CEFR is already widely used around the world to assess language ability. However, because it is 'language neutral' it needs to be interpreted appropriately for each language. English Profile makes the CEFR even more relevant to English language teachers by showing the specific vocabulary, grammar and functional language that students can be expected to master at each level in English. By making the CEFR more accessible in this way, it provides unparalleled support for the development of curricula and teaching materials, and in assessing students' language proficiency.

The English Vocabulary Profile shows, in both British and American English, which words and phrases learners around the world know at each level – A1 to C2 – of the CEFR. Rather than providing a syllabus of the vocabulary that learners should know, the English Vocabulary Profile verifies what they do know at each level. CEFR levels are assigned not just to the words themselves, but to each individual meaning of these words. So, for instance, the word degree is assigned level A2 for the meaning temperature, B1 for qualification, B2 for amount and C2 for the phrase a/some degree of sth. The capitalised guidewords help the user to navigate longer entries, and phrases are listed separately within an entry.

face2face Second edition Elementary and the English Vocabulary Profile

The vocabulary taught in face2face Second edition Elementary has been informed by the English Vocabulary Profile to ensure that the majority of the new words and phrases taught in the Student's Book are A2 (or A1).

To find out more about the English Vocabulary Profile and the English Profile project or to get involved, visit www.englishprofile.org.

The screenshot shows the 'English Vocabulary Profile' website. At the top, there's a header with the title. Below it, there are two tabs: 'British English (D, J, K)' and 'American English (D, J, K)'. Under the 'British' tab, there's a 'Choose level:' section with radio buttons for A1, A1-A2, A1-B1, A1-B2, A1-C1, A1-C2, A2 only, B1 only, B2 only, C1 only, and C2 only. Below this is a 'Browse A-Z' link and an 'OR' option. There's a text input field labeled 'Enter a word or phrase' with 'degree' entered. Below the input field is an 'ADVANCED SEARCH' button and a checkbox for 'Hide culturally sensitive words'. To the right of the search options, it says 'Search results for A1-C2 (4 matches)'. Under 'Core results:', there are four entries: 'degree noun TEMPERATURE A2', 'degree noun QUALIFICATION B1', 'degree noun AMOUNT B2', and 'a/some degree of sth C2'.

The face2face Approach

Listening

A typical listening practice activity in most coursebooks checks students' understanding of gist, and then asks questions about specific details. The innovative Help with Listening sections take students a step further by focusing on the underlying reasons why listening to English can be so problematic. Activities in these sections help students by:

- focusing on the stress system in English.
- examining features of connected speech.
- preparing them for what people in public places say.
- highlighting how intonation conveys mood and feelings.
- encouraging students to make the link between the written and the spoken word by asking them to work with the Audio and Video Scripts while they listen.

For Teaching Tips on Listening, see p21.

Speaking

All the lessons in the Elementary Student's Book and the Class Activities photocopiables provide students with numerous speaking opportunities. Many of these activities focus on accuracy, while the fluency activities help students to gain confidence and try out what they have learned. For fluency activities to be truly 'fluent', however, students often need time to formulate their ideas before they speak, and this preparation is incorporated into the Get ready ... Get it right! activities.

For Teaching Tips on Speaking, see p21.

Reading and Writing

In the Elementary Student's Book, reading texts from a wide variety of genres are used both to present new language and to provide reading practice. Reading sub-skills, such as skimming and scanning, are extensively practised and there are also controlled writing activities to consolidate the language input of the lesson.

For classes that require more reading and writing, there is a 24-page Reading and Writing Portfolio in the Elementary Workbook. This section contains 12 double-page stand-alone lessons which are designed for students to do at home or in class. The topics and content of these lessons are based closely on the CEFR reading and writing competences for levels A1 and A2. There are also 12 Extra Reading photocopiable worksheets (p213), which can be used in class or given for homework.

Vocabulary

face2face recognises the importance of vocabulary in successful communication. There is lexical input in every lesson, which is consolidated for student reference in the interactive Language Summaries in the back of the Student's Book. In addition, each unit in the Student's Book includes at least one Help with Vocabulary section, designed to guide students towards a better understanding of the lexical systems of English.

For longer courses and/or more able students, this Teacher's Book also contains one Vocabulary Plus worksheet for each unit (p196). These worksheets introduce and practise new vocabulary that is not included in the Student's Book.

For Teaching Tips on Vocabulary, see p21.

Grammar

Grammar is a central strand in the face2face Second edition Elementary syllabus and new grammar structures are always introduced in context in a listening or a reading text. We believe students are more likely to understand and remember new language if they have actively tried to work out the rules for themselves, rather than just being given them. Therefore in the Help with Grammar sections students are asked to work out the meaning and form of the structure for themselves, before checking their answers in the Language Summaries. All new grammar forms are practised in regular recorded pronunciation drills and communicative speaking activities, and consolidated through written practice.

For Teaching Tips on Grammar, see p22.

Functional and Situational Language

face2face places great emphasis on the functional and situational language that students need to use immediately in their daily lives. Each unit contains a double-page Real World lesson that introduces and practises this language in a variety of situations. This language can now be presented either by using the video clips on the Teacher's DVD or by using the recordings on the Class Audio CDs.

Pronunciation

Pronunciation is integrated throughout face2face Second edition Elementary. Drills for every new grammar structure and all new Real World language are included on the Class Audio CDs. These drills focus on sentence stress, weak forms, intonation, etc. Students also practise specific phonological features and problem sounds in the Help with Pronunciation sections at the end of each unit.

For Teaching Tips on Pronunciation, see p22.

Reviewing and Recycling

We believe that regular reviewing and recycling of language are essential to students' language development, so language is recycled in every lesson of the Elementary Student's Book. Opportunities for review are also provided in the Quick Review sections at the beginning of every lesson, the full-page Extra Practice section and the 12 photocopiable Progress Tests in this Teacher's Book.

For Teaching Tips on Reviewing and Recycling, see p23.

QUICK REVIEW This activity reviews the Past Simple and adjectives with very, really, quite and too. Give students a few moments to think of three places they went to last year. Put students into pairs. Students take turns to tell each other about the places. Encourage students to ask follow-up questions to find out more information.

Vocabulary and Speaking The internet

- 1 a Highlight the title of the lesson. Point out that Google is a popular search engine and that it can also be used as a verb Why don't you google it?. Students work on their own and choose the correct verb in each sentence, then check in VOCABULARY 6.1 SB p140.

Check answers with the class. Point out that we can get or receive emails and that we download videos or music onto a computer. You may want to point out that the opposite of download is upload. Also point out that we can say chat to or chat with someone. Highlight that email, download, video, chat and blog can be nouns or verbs: I email my brother a lot. She blogs every day.

Model and drill the words/phrases. Pay particular attention to the pronunciation of download /daʊn'ləʊd/ and WiFi /'waɪfaɪ/.

2 send 3 get 4 read 5 download 6 go
7 have 8 chat 9 have 10 use

- b Put students into pairs. Students ask and answer the questions in 1a. Encourage them to continue the conversation by asking follow-up questions if possible. Ask students to share any interesting information with the class.

Reading and Speaking

- 2 a Pre-teach the vocabulary. Note that the aim is to highlight which words you need to pre-teach to help students understand the article and exercises that follow. The vocabulary is not in the Language Summaries in the Student's Book. Model and drill the words/phrases with the class, highlighting the pronunciation of launch /lɔːntʃ/. Point out that the main stress on computer science is on the second word in the phrase, science, but on the first in bank account.
- b Focus students on the photo. Ask students who they think the two people are (the people who started Google). Students read the article and match the headings to the paragraphs. Set a time limit of two minutes to encourage students to read for gist. Check answers with the class and elicit students' reasons for their choices.

1c 2b 3d 4a

- c Focus students on the example. Students read the article again, tick the true sentences and correct the false sentences.

2F 1995 3T 4T 5F BackRub 6T

EXTRA IDEA

- ✍ Write the following years/dates on the board: 1995, 1997, 1998, August 1998, 2004. Tell students to close their books. Students work in pairs and try to remember what happened on each date. Students compare answers with another pair, then open their books and check answers.

HELP WITH GRAMMAR

Past Simple (3): negative

- 3 Students do the exercise on their own or in pairs. Check answers with the class.

- To make the Past Simple negative of the verb be, we use wasn't or weren't.
- To make the Past Simple negative of all other verbs, we use didn't + infinitive.
- Check students understand that didn't is the contracted form of did not.
- Point out that we use didn't for all subjects (I, you, he, she, it, we, they) and highlight the word order: subject + didn't + infinitive + ...
- Also highlight that we use the infinitive after didn't, not the Past Simple form. We say They didn't like each other at first, not ~~They didn't liked each other at first~~.

- 4 a Students work on their own and find six more Past Simple negatives in the article.
b Students compare answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

wasn't; weren't; didn't finish; didn't have;
didn't get; didn't have

- 5 Focus on the example sentence and highlight that didn't is always stressed. Point out that all negative auxiliaries are stressed because they carry meaning.

CD2 ▶ 17 PRONUNCIATION Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and repeat the sentences. Check students copy the sentence stress correctly.

- 6 a Focus students on the example. Show how sentence 1 has been made negative. Students do the exercise on their own.
- b Students work in pairs and compare sentences to find out how many are the same. Encourage them to ask follow-up questions where possible. Ask pairs to share one or two of their sentences that are the same with the class.

Listening and Speaking

- 7 a Tell students they are going to listen to a radio interview with a writer, Wes Clark.
- CD2 ▶ 18 Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and put the people, places and things in the box in the correct order. Check answers with the class.

Russia 2 Sergey's mother 3 Sergey's father 4 Maryland University 5 Michigan State University 6 Larry's parents 7

- b Play the recording again. Students listen and answer the questions. Check answers with the class.

- 1 No, he didn't. (He left Russia in 1979.)
 2 Yes, he did.
 3 Yes, they were.
 4 No, he didn't. (He went to Michigan State University.)
 5 Yes, they did.
 6 Yes, he was.

• HELP WITH GRAMMAR Past Simple (3): yes/no questions and short answers

- 8 Students do the exercise on their own or in pairs. Check answers with the class.

- Both questions start with Did; the short answers are Yes, he did./No, he didn't. and Yes, they did./No, they didn't.
- Highlight the word order in Past Simple yes/no questions: Did + subject + infinitive + ...
- Point out that we don't repeat the infinitive in short answers: Yes, he did. not Yes, he did leave.

- 9 a Focus students on the example. Students do the exercise on their own, then check answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

- 2 Did they like each other at first?
 3 Did Sergey go to Maryland University?
 4 Did Larry's parents teach mathematics?
 5 Did Sergey study computer science?
 6 Did Sergey and Larry launch Google in 1999?

- b Focus students on the questions in 9a.

CD2 ▶ 19 PRONUNCIATION Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and repeat the questions and short answers. Check students copy the stress correctly.

- c Put students into pairs. Students ask and answer the questions in 9a.

1 No, they didn't. (They met in 1995.) 2 No, they didn't. 3 Yes, he did. 4 No, they didn't. (They taught computer science.) 5 Yes, he did. (He studied mathematics and computer science.) 6 No, they didn't. (They launched Google in 1998.)

EXTRA IDEA

- Hold a class quiz. Put students into pairs, A and B. Write the mixed-up questions from 9a on cards and add two more questions so there are eight questions in total (four questions on each card), for example Did Sergey and Larry finish their course at Stanford University? Did they have a bank account in August 1998? Give the student As one card and the student Bs the other card and ask them to put the questions in order. Students then ask their partner their questions.

Get ready ... Get it right!

- 10 Focus students on the example. Students work on their own and write questions with you using the prompts. Tell them to use the verbs in the box. While they are working, check their sentences for accuracy.

- 2 Did you read a good book last month?
 3 Did you watch sport on TV last weekend?
 4 Did you go to a concert last month?
 5 Did you play tennis or football last week?
 6 Did you watch a DVD last weekend?
 7 Did you go to the cinema last week?
 8 Did you have dinner at home last night?

- 11 a Students move around the room asking other students their questions, or ask as many people as they can sitting near them. Tell them to find one person who did each thing. When they find a student who did one of the things, they write the person's name next to the question. Students should try and find a different student for each question. Remind them to ask follow-up questions, for example What did you buy?

- b Focus students on the speech bubble. Remind students to use the Past Simple of the verbs. Finally, students tell the class two things about the people they talked to.

EXTRA IDEA

- Students write two pieces of information about each person they talked to in 11a.

WRITING

Students research information about, for example Apple or Microsoft on the internet and make notes about the people who started these companies. Students write a short article describing the beginnings of the company.

✍ Write these paragraph headings on the board: Starting the business, The man behind the company, Where the company is today.

Grammar can/can't, could/couldn't

QUICK REVIEW This activity reviews Past Simple yes/no questions. Students write five Did you ... questions about yesterday on their own. Put students into pairs, but don't let them talk to each other yet. Students guess if their partner will answer yes or no to their five questions. Students then work in pairs and take turns to ask and answer their questions. Ask students how many of their guesses were correct.

EXTRA IDEA

- ✍ Write the three group headings from 1b on the board. Use these to have a Board Race (see p24).

Vocabulary and Speaking

Mobile phones and TVs

- a Students work in pairs and say which words they know, then check in VOCABULARY 6.2 SB p140. Highlight that we can say get or receive a text and that TV programme is TV show in American English. Check that students understand that app is short for application software, but that we always say an app in this context. Also check they understand that GPS stands for Global Positioning System, but again, we always say the shortened form GPS.

Model and drill the words and phrases. Pay particular attention to the pronunciation of battery /'bætri/ and record /rɪ'kɔ:d/. Highlight the stressed syllable on re·cord and point out the difference between the verb re·cord /rɪ'kɔ:d/ and the noun re·cord /'rekɔ:d/.

Note that only the main stress in words/phrases is shown in vocabulary boxes and the Language Summaries.

- Students work on their own and put the words and phrases in the correct group.

- Students compare answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

TVs: a channel; a TV programme; record mobile phones: send/get a text; charge your phone;
GPS; a battery; an app
TVs and mobile phones: turn on; turn off

- a Students work on their own and put the past time phrases in order.

Students check answers in pairs. Check answers with the class and highlight the following points.

- We use ago with the Past Simple to talk about a time in the past. We say I went there two years ago. not I went there before two years.
- We use last with days, months and with the words night, week, weekend, month, year, century.
- Point out that we say last night but yesterday morning/afternoon/evening, not last morning, etc.
- Also highlight that we don't use a preposition with last. We say last month not in last month.
- We use in with years and months.
- We use in the with decades and centuries.

You can refer students to VOCABULARY 6.3 SB p140 to read about ago, last and in during the lesson before checking the above points with the class.

2 yesterday 3 the day before yesterday
4 last Monday 5 last year 6 two years ago
7 in May 2002 8 in the nineties 9 in 1986
10 in the eighteenth century

- Students do the exercise on their own, then check their answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

2 last 3 in 4 in 5 last 6 ago 7 in/last 8 ago

- Students work on their own and tick the sentences in 2b that are true for them. Tell them to change the time phrases in the other sentences to make them true.

- Students work in pairs and compare their sentences to find out how many are the same.

Ask pairs to share one or two of their sentences that are the same with the class.

Reading and Speaking

3 a Pre-teach the vocabulary. Model and drill the words with the class. Highlight the pronunciation of live /laɪv/ in live TV.

b Focus students on the photos of Gavin and the family. Elicit that the family photo was taken in 1974. Students work in groups and discuss how TV was different in the 1970s. Point out that colour TV was available in the UK from 1966, but most people didn't own a colour TV until the mid-1970s. Check answers with the class.

There were only three channels.
You couldn't record programmes.
There weren't any programmes after midnight.

c Students read the article again and answer the questions. Check answers with the class.

1 two (a son and a daughter) 2 in the 1970s 3 June 1974 4 They watched TV until midnight with biscuits and cups of hot chocolate. 5 a 3D TV

EXTRA IDEA

- Students note down five or six new words from the article and look them up in a dictionary. They then write a sentence for each new word to illustrate the meaning. Encourage students to do this when learning vocabulary, as it will help them to remember the words.

HELP WITH GRAMMAR

can/can't; could/couldn't

4 a-d Students do the exercises on their own or in pairs, then check in GRAMMAR 6.3 SB p141. Check answers with the class.

- a-b We use can + infinitive to say that something is possible in the present.
- We use could + infinitive to say that something was possible in the past.
- For positive sentences, we use subject + can/could + infinitive.
- For negative sentences, we use subject + can't/couldn't + infinitive.
- Highlight the TIP and point out that can/can't and could/couldn't are the same for all subjects (I, you, he, she, it, we, they).
- c 1 can; can't 2 Could; could; couldn't
- Highlight the word order in questions: (question word) + can/could + subject + infinitive + ...
- Remind students that we also use can for ability (My sister can speak Russian.), requests (Can you help me?) and offers (Can I help you?).

HELP WITH LISTENING can and can't

This Help with Listening section helps students to hear the weak and strong forms of can (/kən/ and /kæn/) and the pronunciation of can't /kɑːnt/.

5 a CD2 20 Focus on the example sentences, then play the recording. Elicit when can is stressed (in short answers). Ask students why can't is stressed (because it's negative). Point out that can is usually pronounced in its weak form in positive sentences and questions and that the vowel sound is a schwa /ə/. You can also teach students the American English pronunciation of can't /kænt/.

b CD2 21 Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and decide if they hear can or can't in each sentence. Play the recording again, pausing after each sentence to check answers with the class.

2 can 3 can't 4 can 5 can't 6 Can

6 CD2 22 Focus students on the example and play the beginning of the recording (SB p159).

PRONUNCIATION Play the whole recording (SB p159). Students listen and repeat the sentences. Check students are pronouncing can and can't correctly and are copying the stress and weak form of can.

7 a Focus students on the photo and text. Elicit that the person is holding a mobile phone. Students do the exercise on their own. Make sure students understand the plus sign (+) means they should put in a positive answer (can or could) and the negative sign (–) means they should put in a negative answer (can't or couldn't).

b CD2 23 Play the recording. Students listen and check their answers. Check answers with the class.

2 could 3 could
4 could 5 couldn't
6 could 7 couldn't
8 can't 9 can
10 can 11 can't

8 a Focus students on the example sentences. Students work on their own and write four sentences about their first mobile.

b Students work in pairs and compare their sentences. Ask pairs to share one or two of their sentences that are the same with the class.

EXTRA IDEAS

- Students do a class survey about people's first mobile phone. Students write four or five questions to find out information, for example When did you buy your first mobile? What could you do with your first mobile? What can you do with your mobile now? Students move around the room and ask other students their questions, then give feedback to the class.
- With a strong class, students can write up their findings from the class survey.

Get ready ... Get it right!

- 9 Focus students on the example. Students work on their own and make notes on what they can and can't do for the three things in the list. Make sure they include as many ideas as possible. While they are working, check their notes and help with any vocabulary.
- 10 a Put students into pairs. Focus students on the speech bubbles and drill the example with the class. Students ask and answer questions to find out what they can do with their things, but their partners can't. While they are working, monitor and check their pronunciation.
- b Finally, students tell the class two things they found out about their partner's mobile, computer or TV.

WRITING

Students look back at the article in 3b. Students write an email to a friend describing the time they first did something new, for example played a video game, used a new app, watched a film in 3D, etc.

6C REAL WORLD

The news

Student's Book p52–p53

Real World talking about the news
Vocabulary verbs from news stories

QUICK REVIEW This activity reviews past time phrases. Students work in pairs and take turns to ask and answer about the things in the list. Tell students to ask follow-up questions where possible and have a short conversation. Ask students to share the information they found out about their partner with the class.

The one o'clock news

- 1 Pre-teach the news and point out that this word looks plural but takes a singular verb: What time is the news on? not What time are the news on?. Students then discuss the questions in groups. Ask students to share interesting answers with the class.

EXTRA IDEA

- With a strong class, bring in some articles from English newspapers or the internet. Put students in pairs and give one article to each pair. Students read their article and try to understand the main points of the story. Help students with vocabulary as necessary. Students work in groups or with the whole class and tell one another about their articles.

- 2 a Students work in pairs and say which verbs they know, then say the Past Simple forms of the irregular verbs. Students check in VOCABULARY 6.4 SB p140.

Point out that damage, sail and crash can be nouns as well as verbs: There was a lot of damage. The boat had several sails. They were in a terrible car crash. The adjective form of damage is damaged: The boat was damaged.

Highlight the difference between say and tell.

Model and drill the words. Pay particular attention to the pronunciation of damage /'dæmɪdʒ/, receive /rɪ'si:v/ and lose /lu:z/.

Check answers with the class.

buy/bought; lose/lost;
 find/found; put/put;
 say/said; tell/told

- b CD2 24 PRONUNCIATION Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and repeat the verbs and their Past Simple forms.

EXTRA IDEA

- Students work in pairs and take turns to test each other on the Past Simple forms of the verbs in 2a. One student says the infinitive, for example put, and his/her partner says the Past Simple form, for example put.

- 3 a Tell students that they are going to listen to some TV news stories. Pre-teach the vocabulary, which students will need to understand the news stories.

Point out that a couple = a husband and wife in the third news story, but can also mean two. Check students know where the places mentioned in the stories are (Edinburgh in Scotland, Florida in the USA and Sydney in Australia).

Model and drill the words. Pay particular attention to the pronunciation of couple /'kʌpəl/, coast /kəʊst/ and envelope /'envələʊp/.

b Focus students on the photos A–D of some TV news stories. Students work in pairs and try to match the words from 3a to the stories.

✍ Check suggested answers with the class or write students' suggested answers on the board and then check them after students have listened to the recording and read the news reports. See the Extra ideas box after 7b.

A a storm B an envelope C a storm, a helicopter; a boat; a couple, missing at sea; the coast D a train; a hospital

- 4 a CD2 ▶ 25 Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and put photos A–D of the news stories in order. Check answers with the class.

1D 2A 3C 4B

b Give students time to read the pairs of sentences 1–4. Play the recording again. Students listen and choose the correct answers. Check answers with the class.

1 a 60 b Scotland 2 a Florida b 53 3 a 80 b missing at sea 4 a £13 b His dog

EXTRA IDEA

- Put students into pairs, A and B. Play CD2 ▶ 25 (SB p159). Student As listen for the answers to questions 1 and 2, student Bs listen for the answers to questions 3 and 4. Play the recording again. Students listen and check each other's answers.

HELP WITH LISTENING Sentence stress (3)

This Help with Listening section reviews sentence stress and highlights that we stress the important words.

- 5 a Remind students that in English the important words are usually stressed and the 'grammar' words like a, the, with are usually unstressed.

CD2 ▶ 25 Focus students on the examples and play the first two sentences of the recording again (SB p159). Students listen and notice the stress. Use these examples to illustrate that the words that carry meaning are usually stressed.

b Students turn to Audio Script CD2 ▶ 25, SB p159. Play the recording again. Students listen and notice the stressed words.

Read all about it!

- 6 Focus students on the news reports on SB p53 and use these to teach headline. Establish that these two news reports are from the day after the TV news reports. Ask students which news stories they are about (1 = photo C; 2 = photo B). Do not allow students to read the stories yet.

- 7 a Put students into two groups, group A and group B. Focus students in group A on report 1 and questions 1–5. Focus students in group B on report 2 and questions a–e. Tell students to cover the report that they are not reading.

Students read their report and answer the questions, then check their answers with someone from the same group.

b Put one student from group A with a student from group B. Students ask their partners the questions about each other's report from 7a.

Check answers with the class.

1 A hundred miles from the Australian coast.
2 Sydney. 3 About a hundred and fifty miles from Sydney. 4 Because it was damaged. 5 Two years ago.
a He received a cheque for over £13 million. b The numbers 1–50. c In different places in his house.
d They had a dog biscuit in each one. e To find him a girlfriend.

EXTRA IDEAS

- When students have finished the activity, give students time to read the other report.
- Check students' suggested answers from 3b if you didn't check them earlier.

What happened?

- 8 a Ask students to remind you what the four news stories in photos A–D are about. Tell students they are going to watch or hear four conversations. In each conversation the people are talking about one of these news stories.

VIDEO ▶ 6 CD2 ▶ 26 Play the video or audio recording (SB p159). Students watch or listen and match the conversations to the news stories/photos.

1 the lottery winner (B) 2 the train crash (D)
3 the storm (A) 4 the couple missing at sea (C) b Give students time to read sentences 1–6 and responses a–f from the conversations. Establish that a–f are typical things that native speakers say in response to news.

Play the video or audio recording again. Students watch or listen and match the sentences to the responses.

REAL WORLD Talking about the news

- 9 a-c Pre-teach surprising. Students do exercises 9a and 9b on their own or in pairs, then check in REAL WORLD 6.1 SB p141.

Check answers with the class.

- a 1 A hear B was; 2 A about B happened
- b good news: Oh, that's good. bad news: Oh no, that's terrible.; Yes, isn't it awful?; Oh, dear. Are they OK? surprising news: You're joking!
- Check students understand that awful and terrible have the same meaning (= very bad).
- Note that we say What happened? not ~~What did happen?~~ in this context. This is because What is the subject of happened, and in subject questions we use the Past Simple form, not did + infinitive. However, we suggest you teach this as a lexical phrase and don't draw students' attention to this unless they ask.

- 10 CD2 27 PRONUNCIATION Play the recording (SB p159). Students listen and repeat the questions in 9a and the responses in 9b.

Encourage students to copy the stress and intonation patterns in the responses and establish the importance of intonation in sounding interested when responding to news. Also check they pronounce awful /'ɔ:fəl/ correctly.

- 11 Pre-teach tourist /'tuərist/, desert /'dezət/, jungle /'dʒʌŋɡəl/ and ate (Past Simple of eat). Model and drill these words.
- Put students into pairs, student A and student B. Student As turn to SB p106 and student Bs turn to SB p111. Check they are all looking at the correct exercise.

a Students work on their own and read about the news stories. They should check any other problem words with you if necessary.

b Focus students on the phrase box, which reminds them of the Real World language in 9.

Students work in pairs and take turns to tell each other about their news stories. Students should only give one piece of information about each story at a time. Their partner responds to each piece of information with an appropriate phrase from the box.

Make sure students use full sentences (for example He gave the money to a hospital., The dog ate his ticket., etc.) when talking about the news stories.

While students are working, check students' responses and intonation and help with any problems.

Finally, ask a few pairs to role-play their conversations for the class.

EXTRA IDEA

- For homework, students find a news item in an English newspaper or on the internet that interests them. Ask them to write notes to help them remember the main points of the story. At the beginning of the next class, put students in groups and ask them to tell their partners about their news stories.

6D VOCABULARY AND SKILLS

Mario Man

Student's Book p54–p55

Vocabulary articles: a, an and the Skills reading: a fact file; listening: a radio programme

QUICK REVIEW This activity reviews irregular verbs and talking about the news. Students work in pairs and see how much they can remember about the four news stories from lesson 6C, making notes if necessary. Students compare ideas with another pair, then check on SB p52 and p53. Check answers with the class.

- 1 Focus students on the questions. Make sure students understand that if they play video games they discuss questions a–d, and if they don't, they discuss questions e–h.

Students discuss the questions in groups. Ask students to share interesting answers with the class.

EXTRA IDEA

- Do a classroom survey to find out how many people play video games. Ask students to give feedback to the class.

- 2 a Pre-teach the vocabulary.
- Highlight the pronunciation of designer /dɪ'zaɪnə/, award /ə'wɔ:d/ and villain /'vɪlən/. Make sure students understand that a hero is the 'good guy' and a villain is the 'bad guy'.

b Focus students on the photos and the fact file. Students do the exercise on their own, then check answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

1 a video game designer 2 Nintendo 3 in Kyoto (Japan) 4 at Kanazawa College of Art 5 Yes, he is. 6 a manager 7 No, he doesn't (play them very often). 8 Mario

- 3 CD2 ▶ 28 Play the recording (SB pp159–p160). Students listen and fill in the gaps in the fact file. Play the recording again for students to check their answers.

1 1952 2 1975 3 France 4 bike
5 music 6 bad 7 1983

EXTRA IDEA

- If your students are finding the recording difficult, ask them to look at Audio Script CD2 ▶ 28, SB p159. Play the recording again. Students listen, read and check their answers.

HELP WITH VOCABULARY

Articles: a, an and the

- 4 a–b Focus students on the sentences. Students do 4a on their own, then check in VOCABULARY 6.5 ▶ SB p140.

- We use the when we know which thing, person, place, etc., because there is only one.
- We use a or an to talk about things or people for the first time.
- We use the to talk about a person or a thing for the second, third, fourth, etc. time.
- Point out that we also use the in some fixed phrases (at the weekend, in the evening, go to the cinema, etc.) and elicit other examples from students (the news, go to the theatre, in the morning, etc.).

- 5 Focus students on the words in bold in the last paragraph of the fact file. Students work in pairs and match the words to rules 1–3 in 4a. Check answers with the class.

All Mario Bros. video games have a story (2). The story (3) always has a hero (2), a princess (2) and a villain (2). The villain (3) wants to marry the princess (3), so he takes her to a place (2) where the hero (3) can't find her. But the hero (3) always finds the place (3) and saves the princess (3) from the villain (3). And that's the end (1) of the game.

- 6 a Students do the exercise on their own.
b Students check answers in pairs. Encourage students to justify their reasons for choosing a, an or the, referring back to the rules in 4a.

Check answers with the class.

2 the 3 The 4 a 5 the 6 a 7 an 8 a 9 The 10 the 11 the 12 the 13 the 14 the 15 the 16 the 17 a

- 7 a Students do the exercise on their own. Check answers with the class, again asking students to justify their answers if there is any disagreement.

1 a 2 a 3 the 4 the; the 5 the 6 a

- b Students work in pairs and take turns to ask and answer the questions. Encourage students to ask follow-up questions if possible. Finally, ask students to share interesting answers with the class.

EXTRA IDEA

- Write twelve sentences which include articles on a piece of paper. Six of these sentences should be correct and six should include incorrect use of articles, for example I saw the great film last week., Sue's not in a bedroom, she's in a kitchen., etc. Make one photocopy for each student in the class. Students work in groups and decide which sentences are correct and which are incorrect. Check answers with the class. The group with the most correct sentences wins. Alternatively, you can do this activity as a Grammar Auction (see p25).

WRITING

Students write a fact file about a famous person.

✍ Write the following headings on the board: Occupation, Born, Education, Family life, Interesting facts. Students use the fact file in 2 as a model.

HELP WITH PRONUNCIATION

Past Simple of regular verbs

- 1 a Focus students on the phonemes /t/, /d/ and /ɪd/ and the verbs.
CD2 ▶ 29 Play the recording. Students listen to the regular verbs and their Past Simple forms, and notice how we say the -ed endings in the Past Simple.

Draw students' attention to the TIP. Point out that when a verb ends in a /t/ or /d/ sound, for example hate or download, the Past Simple -ed ending is pronounced /ɪd/ (hated /'heɪtɪd/, downloaded /daʊn'ləʊdɪd/).

b Play the recording again. Students listen and repeat the verbs and Past Simple forms. If students are having problems with the sounds, help them with the mouth position for each sound.

Point out that we make the /t/ sound by stopping the air with the tongue behind the teeth. Then we move the tongue down to release the air. Tell students to try holding a piece of paper in front of their mouth when they move their tongue down. The paper should move.

Point out that we make the /d/ sound in the same way, but a piece of paper held in front of the mouth shouldn't move. Highlight that /d/ is a voiced sound.

Also point out that if the verb ends in a /t/ or /d/ sound, we add the extra syllable in the Past Simple form /ɪd/, for example wait /weɪt/, waited /'weɪtɪd/.

- 2 a Focus students on the example. Students do the exercise in pairs. Encourage students to say the words out loud to help them decide which of the three Past Simple forms has an /ɪd/ ending.

b CD2 30 Play the recording. Students listen and check their answers. Check answers with the class. Play the recording again. Students listen and repeat the words.

2 downloaded 3 chatted 4 hated
5 recorded 6 visited

EXTRA IDEA

- Students work in pairs and decide whether the -ed ending in the other two words in each line is pronounced /t/ or /d/. Check answers with the class.

1 moved /d/; loved /d/ 2 liked /t/; played /d/
3 lived /d/; crashed /t/ 4 listened /d/; worked /t/
5 travelled /d/; finished /t/ 6 walked /t/; phoned /d/

- 3 Students work in pairs and take turns to say a verb from 1a or 2a. Their partner says the Past Simple form. Finally, ask each student to say a verb from 1a or 2a and its Past Simple form. Check they say the -ed ending correctly and praise good pronunciation.
